2025-26 National Nominating Committee Collegiate Member Position Description

INFORMATION

The Alpha Chi Omega 2024-26 National Nominating Committee (NNC) is seeking applicants for the positions of collegiate member and collegiate alternate member. The collegiate member and collegiate alternate member, both of whom must be members in good standing with the Fraternity at the time of their selection, will serve a one-year term beginning August 1, 2025. Both the collegiate member and collegiate alternate member must sign an oath of confidentiality and will have participation rights and responsibilities in all meetings of the NNC throughout the term, with the collegiate member also having the right to vote. A vacancy in the collegiate member position will be filled by the collegiate alternate member. Meetings are held by video conference, on an average of twice per month from August through December. One on-site weekend meeting is held at national headquarters in Indianapolis, Indiana, in spring 2026, with travel expenses paid by the Fraternity.

BENEFITS OF SERVICE

- Taking an active leadership role in the nomination process for National Council officers
- Providing input into the future of Alpha Chi Omega leadership
